Hey everyone,

Firstly, I need to apologize for missing our meeting this month. I have been pulled in a few different directions lately and the meeting wasn't in my google calendar so I didn't get the usual notification.

Secondly, I unfortunately will have to take this time to inform you all of my resignation as our Chair. Bank of America has been awful awful awful to deal with and my account I've been trying to close since the beginning of summer has somehow racked up close to 2,000 dollars in internal analysis fees. I've held this group back long enough trying to rectify the situation and I still don't see an immediate resolution presenting itself.

It really pains me to do this, I can't help but feeling like a bit of failure but I know this group will accomplish great things in this state and I hope to join you all again in an official capacity once I'm no longer a hindrance to the group.

Thank you all for the work you've done and will continue to do! I will happily help in any facet that I can moving forward.
